

Keith Watkins received an Undergraduate Research and Creativity Award for academic year 2014/15 for a dendrochronology project to be conducted on campus. Keith will core the oldest trees at UNCG and then create an interactive campus map that will show the age, height, diameter, species and location of these trees. Keith will also present his results at the 9th Annual Carolyn and Norwood Thomas Undergraduate Research and Creativity Expo in Spring 2015.